

What is claimed as being new and desired to be protected by Letters Patent of the United States is as follows:

1. A method for playing a stud poker game comprising, in combination;

(A) a deck of 54 playing cards; said deck being 2 jokers and 52 said cards; said cards having 14 cards therein with the wild card phrases printed thereon said cards, said 14 cards and said phrases being;

(1) 2 black aces, spade and club suite playing cards, with said printing being, ANY BLACK CARD, thereon both said black cards, and 2 red aces, diamond and heart suite playing cards, with said printing being, ANY RED CARD. thereon both said red cards:

(2) 4 sevens; club, spade, diamond and heart suite playing cards with said printing being, FACE VALUE IN ANY SUITE, thereon all 4 seven cards;

(3) 4 deuces; club, spade, diamond and heart suite playing cards with said printing being, FILLS ANY TWO PAIR, thereon all 4 said deuce cards;

(4) 1 red joker playing card with said printing being, GOOD AS ANY CARD, thereon said red joker card, and 1 black joker playing card with said printing being, NO VALUE GOOD FOR FREE BET AND RAISE, thereon said black joker card, with option therefore; and

(B) a method of sequence for playing said game with said playing cards wherein; said 54 cards are first shuffled thoroughly, included therein are said 14 wild cards; a designated dealer deals two cards from said deck to said players in said game; a first card being dealt face down to said players; a second said card being dealt face up to said players; each said player either passes, bets or calls; a third said card being dealt face up to said players; said players with the highest face up hand leads off the betting ; a fourth said card being dealt face up to said players; said player with said high face up hand leads off said betting; a fifth said card being dealt face up to said players; a sixth said card being dealt face down to said players; final said betting is now made by said high face up hand player and said players either fold, pass or raise; all said face down cards are turned face up and said players evaluate said cards so as to produce a winner for said stud poker game of the present invention; said game having options and alternative rules therein.

1 (2) The invention as claimed in claim 1 wherein said printing on said 14 wild cards is
2 printed on the playing surface of all said 14 wild cards at the top position of said cards and
3 is also printed upside down, or reversed, on the bottom position of said cards so as to been
4 seen and read by all said players in said card game.

5 (3) The invention as claimed in claim 1 wherein said options include; using special
6 values such as duplicate cards in a flush; straights of any kind must reach a five card range;
7 the use of said jokers can be optionally selected by the dealer; and wherein said game may
8 be shortened so as to play draw poker if desired by dealing 5 cards with a maximum of a
9 three card draw.

10 (4) The invention as claimed in claim 1 wherein the number of players may range from 11 1 to 8; preferred being at least 2 said players against each other.

12

13 * * * * * *

14

15

16

17

18